IMPORTANT FACTS: Please read these notes before completing the proposal
Your duty of Disclosure:	Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty under the INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 1984 to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision on whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• That diminish the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;• That is of common knowledge;• That your Insurer knows of, or in the ordinary course of business ought to know ;• As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.
Non-Disclosure:	If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure, or disclosure, is fraudulent the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its commencement.
Subrogation Rights:	If you have entered into an agreement which excludes or limits your right to recover part or all of any loss or damage from another party, we will not cover you for that loss or damage under the policy.
Third Party Interests:	You must inform us of the interests of all third parties (e.g. financiers, lessors) to be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have informed us of them and they are noted on the Schedule.
Privacy Policy:	AIB Insurance Brokers complies with the Federal Privacy Act and its National Privacy Principles (NPPs), which set out standards for the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information. For further information relating to our NPPs please refer to http://www.aibinsurance.com.au/privacy.htm
